During the next Family Musical Mornings concert, you will hear instruments of the orchestra playing music that is supposed to sound like or remind you of an animal. Let's take a look at a few animals you will hear and the instrument that will be playing their music...

The Hee Haw of the DONKEY is played with the left hand fingers and the bow on the VIOLIN

The graceful, slow moving melody of the SWAN is played on the CELLO

Two notes, D and B-flat, sound like the call of the CUCKOO and are played on the CLARINET

The clickety-clackety sounds FOSSILS might make are played on the XYLOPHONE

Music that sounds like hopping and resting KANGAROOS is played on the keys of a PIANO

BIRDS flying in an aviary are played on the keys of a silver FLUTE

Do not forget to write a question before the concert in the
