

ALEXANDER SHELLEY Artistic & Music Director Designate

PRINCIPAL HARP candidates, please read this document carefully.

All questions regarding auditions and the information below must be sent to the Director of Orchestra Personnel at auditions@pacificsymphony.org. Discussions with or inquiries to anyone other than the Director of Orchestra Personnel could disqualify the candidate from the audition. No phone calls please.

Please check this document regularly, as audition information may change. Applicants will be notified of any updates as soon as possible.

Live Auditions for PRINCIPAL HARP

Monday, October 19 – Preliminary Round

Tuesday, October 20 – All Additional Rounds

Auditions will be held at Soka Performing Arts Center, 1 University Drive, Aliso Viejo, CA 92656.

Candidates may bring their own instruments to the audition. Pacific Symphony will also provide one or more harps and will ensure equal access to the instruments provided prior to each candidate's audition time. Additional information regarding the instruments provided will be available at a later date.

Brief Summary of the Audition Process

1. To apply, complete and submit an online Audition Application and mail a $100 deposit check addressed as follows:

Additional Audition-related Information

Pacific Symphony tunes to A=441

It is understood that candidates auditioning for a position will accept the position should they win. Winning candidates must pass a background check prior to receiving an offer of employment and show proof of eligibility to work in the United States. Please do not apply or audition if you do not intend to accept the position, cannot pass a background check, or are ineligible to work in the United States.

Candidates will be provided with a complete, official packet of the required excerpts when they are invited to participate. Candidates may use their own music, with the understanding that the Audition Committee will be using the official packet.

No electronic devices are allowed during the audition, including tuners, metronomes, cell phones, recording devices, etc.

Feedback about your audition may be provided in writing several weeks after the audition. Do not solicit members of the orchestra for feedback. Send a request through email to the Director of Orchestra Personnel.

Pacific Symphony reserves the right to dismiss any candidate(s) not meeting the highest professional standards during the audition process.

General Information about Pacific Symphony

Pacific Symphony is the resident orchestra at Segerstrom Center for the Arts, performing more than 100 concerts annually. Its winter series at the Renée and Henry Segerstrom Concert Hall includes Classical, Pops, Family, and Sunday Matinee performances, while the Summer Series is held at Great Park Live. The Symphony also performs special concerts, serves as the primary orchestra for Pacific Chorale and the Center's international ballet series, and offers extensive education and community programs throughout Orange County.
